Tower...C&R Ready For Departure

As we come to the close of our time serving in Guatemala, our hearts are full of gratitude. For more than 20 years, you have stood with us—praying, giving, encouraging, and believing with us for the work God called us to do among the people of Guatemala.

Your support has been so much more than financial partnership. It has been a steady reminder that we were never serving alone. Through seasons of growth, challenge, joy, uncertainty, and answered prayer, your faithfulness helped make ministry possible and gave us strength to continue serving with hope.

Because of your prayers and generosity, lives have been touched, relationships have been built, the love of Christ has been shared, and seeds of the Gospel have been planted in ways that will continue to bear fruit long after our season in Guatemala has ended.

As we are today in 2026...not so young but still on fire for Jesus!

Missionaries come in all shapes and sizes. Street evangelism and coat distribution.

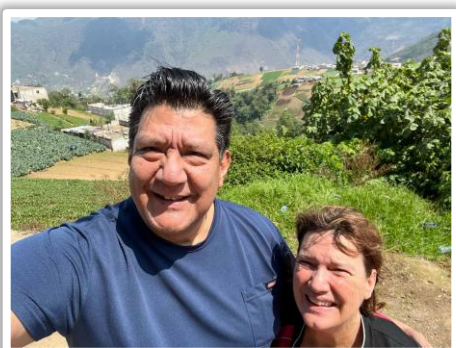

C&R...Line Up & Wait

It is not easy to say goodbye to a place and people who have become such a meaningful part of our lives. Yet as we look back, we do so with deep thankfulness for all God has done—and for each of you who helped carry this calling with us for more than two decades.

Before Takeoff Check List

We still remember the joy we felt when we first stepped onto our mission field, arriving with only two suitcases between us. Now, after more than 20 years, we prepare to return to our home country carrying two suitcases between us once again—and with that same joy in the Lord that filled our hearts when we first arrived.

C&R...Proceed On Course

As we look ahead, we will begin a gradual transition during the last quarter of 2026. With that transition, our season of receiving missionary support will also end on 31 December 2026. We share this not with heaviness, but with deep gratitude for the ways the Lord has provided through your faithful partnership, and with trust in His continued guidance for the next season.

C&R...Cleared To Land

Thank you for trusting God with us. Thank you for your sacrifice, your encouragement, your prayers, and your friendship. We are humbled by your faithfulness and will always remember the part you have played in this ministry and in our lives. With sincere gratitude and love.
